Scout Calendar Sale Will Aid Junior Blind

Girl Scout Troop 2000 has had a busy season since registration in October. The troop has visited the San Diego Zoo, Pomona Fair and Universal City Studios. Also there have been troop cook-outs. The troop is now busy selling Girl Scout Calendars. The profit of .204 cents per calendar will be donated to the Foundation for the Junior Blind, 5300 Angeles Vista Blvd., Los Angeles. The girls hope to sell 300 calendars. The girls are also collecting and repairing clothes for the Los Angeles County Spastic Foundations. The annual troop Christmas party is planned for Thursday. The troop will go caroling as they have for the last nine years. The party will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Berrish, 21320 S. Brighton Ave. Girls participating are Noreen

EC Concludes 'Bill of Rights' Ceremonies

Bill of Rights Week was concluded on the El Camino College campus with a special Bill of Rights Edition of the college paper, the Warhoop, and a flag-raising ceremony performed by a color guard and drum and bugle corps from T. MacArthur Friday. Sponsored by the El Camino College Bill of Rights Commemoration Committee, the week started Dec. 9 with the passing of resolutions by Los Angeles County and several South Bay communities in commemoration of the adoption of the first 10 amendments to the Constitution. State Senator James Q. Wedsworth was a guest speaker on campus last Tuesday morning using "Freedom's Uses" as his topic. Throughout the week students passed out copies of the Bill of Rights in the South Bay area and on campus and visited service clubs in the area to make presentations of the Bill of Rights. Wednesday and Thursday students participated in the selection of student body officers for the spring semester. ECC students distributed copies of the Bill of Rights throughout the South Bay area Saturday.

Teacher Honored By Group

Alan Moore, chairman of the mathematics department at South High School, was one of 15 teachers throughout Southern California to be honored by the Southern California Industry Education Council at the organization's sixth annual Salute to Education banquet. The event took place Dec. 10 at the Coconut Grove, Ambassador Hotel, Los Angeles.

An employee of the Torrance Unified School District for over 20 years, Moore this year completes his 45th year in the teaching profession.

Prior to coming to Torrance in 1948, he taught for 21 years in Canada and for two and one-half years in Lemoore, Calif.

He has been on the South High faculty for the past 11 years.

Moore resides in Torrance, is married, and is the father of two grown sons.

Purpose of the Salute to Education, according to Haig Marshlian, president of the South Bay-Harbor Industry-Education Council, an affiliate of the Southern California Council, is "to recognize, thank, honor and host those classroom teachers and singular leaders in industry and in education who have directly or indirectly developed the interest, direction, motivation and responsibility of our youth."

Guess who Syd and Gladys ran into the other day?

Hank and Marilyn.

Your best chance to head off a "head-on" is to think negatively. Assume that behind every oncoming truck or car there's a good guy about to make a bad mistake. And, be prepared to get out of his way if he does.

Whenever, wherever you drive . . . drive defensively. Watch out for the other guy. It's the best way there is to watch out for you.
